

Manish Thakur is Professor at the Public Policy and Management Group, Indian Institute of Management Calcutta, Kolkata. Previously, he was lecturer in sociology at Goa University (1997-2007) and a fellow at the Indian Institute of Advanced Study, Shimla (2011-13). He has published more than thirty research papers in professional journals and edited volumes. He has also authored/edited three books - Indian Village: A Conceptual History (2014), The Quest for Indian Sociology: Radhakamal Mukerjee and Our Times (2014), and Management Education in India: Perspectives and Practices (co-edited, 2017). His published research deals with aspects of water resources management, rural development knowledge institutions and discourses, research-policy interface, political culture, place of sociology in management education, social movements, intellectual history and indigenous theories. His areas of research interests are rural-agrarian sociology, economic sociology, and disciplinary practices. Dr. Thakur is the recipient of three prestigious awards – Dr. V.K.R.V. Rao Award in Social Sciences (Sociology) 2014 (Institute of Social and Economic Change, Bengaluru and Indian Council of Social Science Research, New Delhi, Prof. M. N. Srinivas Memorial Award for Young Sociologist, 2007 (Indian Sociological Society), and Prof. Radhakamal Mukerjee Memorial Award for Young Social Scientist, 2002 (Indian Social Science Association).

Ever since he took the life membership of the Indian Sociological Society (ISS) in 1999, Dr Thakur has been actively associated with its professional activities in manifold ways: as a participant/paper presenter in sixteen All Indian Sociological Conferences so far (during 2000-2017), as a Research Committee Convener of RC 01: Theory, Concepts and Methodology (2015-2017), and as a member of the Editorial Advisory Committee, Sociological Bulletin (2008-2009). He has consistently published in the Sociological Bulletin (the official journal of the Indian Sociological Society): 8 papers/ review essays and 9 book reviews.