PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Prof. JOHN KATTAKAYAM

Dear Colleagues,

The preparation for the next All India Sociological Conference (AISC) to be held at Ravenshaw University, Cuttack are currently on in right earnest. Prof. D.R. Sahu and his able team are leading the efforts to organise the Conference and they are leaving no stone unturned to make it a grand success.

For the first time in the history of the ISS, we will be having the Prof. Radha Kamal Mukerjee Memorial Lecture. Eminent Sociologist Prof. T.N. Madan has kindly consented to deliver the First Radha Kamal Mukerjee Memorial Lecture at the next conference. As we had reported in the previous issue of the ISS Newsletter, Prof. Suma Chittnis will be delivering the next Prof. M.N. Sreenivas Memorial Lecture. In an attempt to strengthen teaching and research in sociology, we are planning a two-day workshop for Research Committee Convenors in Delhi University during the first week of October, 2010.

The ISS has also planned a Young Sociologists' Workshop just before the All India Sociological Conference - on December 25 and 26, 2010. We hope that young sociologists will make use of this platform to participate and share their thoughts and ideas on the problems they face and the steps needed to instil vitality into our profession. The local organising committee has magnanimously agreed to provide free local hospitality for the Young Sociologists' Workshop from December 23 onwards; provided the participants at the workshop register for the main conference, the AISC.

As you all know, the Managing Committee has decided to celebrate the Diamond Jubilee Celebration due next year, in a big way. The Conference at Cuttack would give us an opportunity to discuss and set the ball rolling on organising the Diamond Jubilee Celebrations in a manner befitting the history and prestige of the ISS.

I earnestly request all members of the ISS to register for the Conference; September 15 is the last date for registration without late fee. I also request all members to send us their e-mail addresses so that we can send them the ISS Newsletter immediately. This will also help the Society save paper and postal expenses.

Hoping to meet you all at Cuttack.

With warm regards & Best Wishes

J. J. Kattakayam

SECRETARY SPEAKS

Prof. TULSI PATEL

Dear Colleagues, Greetings.

The previous newsletter brought to you the registration form for the All India sociological conference in Cuttack to be held from 27-29 December, 2010. Prof. Sahu at Ravenshaw University is trying his best to make arrangements for our conference. I do hope to meet many of you during the conference. I have been in communication with some of the committees we constituted for various activities of the society. Also, many of the activities during the AISC are being planned at present to continue to have a rewarding academic experience. There are attempts to organize a meeting of all RC conveners prior to the AISC. An announcement for this would be out soon. I would request the members to keep the editor of the News Letter informed of any special events and achievements about the life members and the discipline to be shared amongst us all through the News Letter.

Best wishes,

sociology_dse@yahoo.com

Yours sincerely

Tulsi Patel

FROM THE EDITOR'S DESK

Prof. J. KRISHNAMURTHY

Dear Colleagues: Greetings!

When I took the responsibility of Editing the ISS Newsletter in February 2010, I have set the goal of improving the Newsletter in terms of information content and quality. With the guidance of my predecessor and friends I could succeed in bringing out the Vol.9 No.1 April 2010 issue as my first ISS Newsletter to the satisfaction of all our members. I am sure that still there are areas I have to look into carefully to make the Newsletter more attractive and informative. Though, I have taken efforts to improve the Newsletter this time on the basis of suggestions received from members. I still feel that I have to go a long way to achieve my goal of perfection. Collecting, arranging and editing the news items provide workable guidelines for me and, I also learned much from my involvement in bringing out the ISS Newsletter. I am really fortunate to have a number of people and friends who have been very generous with material and helpful advice. I also record my sincere thanks to all the MC Members of ISS and academic friends who guided and inspired me to undertake this great venture. I thank them for their unfailing enthusiasm. Now, I request the contributors to send the news items well in advance so that I can go for press on time and bring out the Newsletter to the satisfaction of all concerned. Let me add one more point that with all the members unwavering encouragement and support I could bring out the ISS Newsletter with more information and quality on time.

THE DETAILED REPORT OF 35th ALL INDIA SOCIOLOGICAL CONFERENCE Srinagar, October 10-12, 2009

The 35th All India Sociological Conference of Indian Sociological Society was organized on October 10th-12th, 2009 in Srinagar. The Department of Sociology and Social Work, University of Kashmir hosted it.

The Conference was inaugurated by His Excellency Shri N. N. Vohra, the Governor of Jammu and Kashmir. Hon'ble Mr. Omar Abdullah, the Chief Minister of Jammu and Kashmir was the Chief Guest of the function. The other members of the dais were Prof. (Dr.) Riyaz Punjabi, the Vice Chancellor of the University, Prof. Uttam Bhoite, the President of the Indian Sociological Society, Prof. Ishwar Modi, Secretary of Indian Sociological Society, Dr. Aneesa Shafi, Organizing Secretary of the Conference, Prof. Syed Fayyaz Ahmad, Registrar of the University.

In his speech Mr. Omar Abdullah underlined the role, sociologists can play in enhancing national integration. In his presidential address Prof. Bhoite said that with the increasing number of regional political parties, the situation is created threatening the national integration which is in a perennially critical phase. He also argued that the regional political parties and the regional elites can contribute significantly in bringing about national integration at a different level if they could establish positive equations with the national level political parties. In his inaugural speech, Shri. N.N. Vohra expected that this Conference would help to strengthen further the feelings of national solidarity. Dr. Aneesa Shafi made the introductory remarks and also conducted the proceedings of the function. Prof. Syed Fayyaz Ahmad, Registrar of the University proposed a vote of thanks.

The major theme of the Conference was "Identity Development and Nation Building". The Conference programme included among other items four symposia.

The theme of the first symposium was Development, Diversity and Identity: Contemporary Challenges to Nation Building. In this symposium, the following Scholars gave their presentations.

- Prof. Partha Mukherjee, New Delhi
- Prof. Paramjeet Singh Judge, Amritsar
- Prof. George Mathews, New Delhi

The second symposium was devoted to the theme Gender, Culture and Development and the speakers in this symposium were:

- Prof. Kamala Ganesh, (Mumbai)
- Prof. Aparna Rayaprol, (Hyderabad)
- Dr. Madhu Nagala, (Rohatak).

The theme of the third symposium was "Relevance of Indigenous Intellectual Traditions to the Sociology:

East-West Dialogue." In this symposium, the following Scholars gave their presentations.

- Prof. Piotr Glinski (Poland)
- Prof. Hetukar Jha, (Patna)
- Prof. V. Sujatha, (New Delhi)
- Prof. Arvind Agrawal, (Jaipur)

The fourth symposium was devoted to the Kashmir Region. The theme identified for this symposium was "Composite Culture of J & K: Retrospect and Prospects". Among those who gave presentations in this symposium were,

- Prof. T. N. Madan, New Delhi
- Dr. Haseeb Drabu, Kashmir
- Prof. Ishap Khan, Kashmir
- Prof. Riyaz Punjabi, Kashmir

The Indian Sociological Society, keeping up its tradition felicitated Prof. Andre Beteille, Prof. Arvind Shah and Prof. Bela Dutt Gupta for their splendid contributions to the development of Sociology and Sociology Profession in India. Prof. Ravindra Jain delivered Prof. M.N. Srinivas Memorial Lecture on 12th November, 2009 in the afternoon. In all, three long sessions were allotted to various R.Cs. which were largely attended by their members. The Annual Meeting of General Body of Indian Sociological Society was organized on 12th afternoon. Prof. Uttam Bhoite, President of the ISS presided over meeting. Prof. Ishwar Modi, the Secretary of ISS presented the Annual Report of the activities of ISS during the year. Prof. Dr. Ravinder Kaur, the Treasurer of the ISS presented the accounts of the ISS and also the budget for the next financial year. The meetings of R.C. convenors and the representatives of Regional Associations were also organised in which various issues and problems faced by the same were discussed. Prof. K. L. Sharma, delivered the valedictory address. Around 1200 Sociology Professionals across the country, besides about 10 overseas scholars attended the Conference. Dr. Aneesa Shafi and her colleagues and students made meticulous arrangements for the Conference under the able guidance of Prof. (Dr.) Riyaz Punjabi.

The Conference thus was very successful both academically and otherwise.

PS: The earlier version published in the Vol.9 No.1 April 2010 issue was not complete in all aspects since it has been taken from the Conference Secretariat of 35 AISC. Hence this detailed report from ISS.

REPORT OF THE RC ACTIVITIES OF THE 35 AISC HELD AT SRINAGAR, KASHMIR DURING OCTOBER 10-12, 2009

R. C. 5 - Education and Society

There are about 28 abstracts submitted on time besides some senior scholars who also participated and presented their papers on variety of topics ranging from the need for studying professional obsolescence, girl child education and the nation building, educational system and inequality, empowerment through education, under privileged children and right to education, the functioning of mid-day meal scheme in Bihar, primary education through Sarva Siksha Abhiyan, eradication of child labour to childhood, non-formal adult education, globalization and youth culture, blind students and their adjustment problems, educational aspirations of rural youth, globalization and higher education, Anganwadi workers and their problems etc.

Interestingly many senior academicians participated and presented their papers. Senior Sociologists like Prof. Radha Krishna Murthy and Prof. B. Rama Murthy and others chaired the different sessions and made their valuable comments on each paper which enlightened and inspired the young scholars. The participation and presentation of scholars was intellectually stimulating and papers presented were scholarly and most of them were empirical in nature.

RC 20 - Leisure and Tourism

RC-20 conducted three technical sessions and one business session. Special lecture was organized on Scope of Leisure and Tourism studies by Prof. Ishwar Modi and it was chaired by the President of ISS, Prof. Utam Bhoite. A total of eleven papers were presented in the other three technical sessions which covered a variety of issues like local and global tourism, tourism policies, leisure pattern and practices among housewives, youth, college girl students, migrant labour etc. The sessions were chaired by Prof. Anuradha Bhoite, Prof. Vishesh Kumar Gupta, Dr. Birender Singh, Dr. Rashmi Jain and Dr. Madhu Nagla. The papers generated active participation and fruitful interventions. Finally, in the business meeting, three executive members have been inducted namely, Dr. Vishesh Kumar Gupta, Dr. Kali Nath Jha and Dr. Subodh Kumar. The business session was concluded with a note to strengthen the activities of RC.

Iss Adhoc Group on Sociology of Law

The Group meets annually at the time of the organization of All India Sociological Conference of ISS. In 2009 the sessions took place at University of Kashmir, Srinagar. About 22 research papers were presented during the three days of the conference. The sessions were chaired by Prof. D. Sundaram, Prof. Arvind Agrawal, Dr. Rashmi Jain.

Report of the National Seminar on "Economic Reforms and Emerging Social Crisis in India" Feb10-11, 2010

The Department of Sociology of Maharshi Dayanand University, Rohtak in collaboration with the North West Regional Centre of the ICSSR organized a two-day National Seminar. Prof. M. C. Sharma, vice-chancellor, Central University of Haryana while delivering the inaugural address stressed that economic reforms along with globalization have created oligopolies which were behind the present scenario in the world. He said market forces had unleashed vulgar consumerism, ruthless competitiveness and maximization of profit.

Delivering the keynote address, Prof Parthanath Mukherjee traced out the history of economic reforms and consequent economic changes were the growing incidents of suicide by farmers and the enlarging base of Maoist violence in India. He called for socio-economic policies with human face to meet the social crisis emanating out of economic reforms. Prof. R. P. Hooda vice-chancellor, MDU, said social crisis was primarily an offshoot of rural indebtedness. He said institutions of marriage and family were faced with strain on account of new economic scenario. Noted sociologist Prof. K. G. Iyer delivered the valedictory address in which he raised the issues relating to the agrarian crisis. Prof. S. R. Ahlawat was the organizing secretary of the seminar.

IN MEMOIR

1. Prof. Indra Deva (1932-2009) former President of ISS has passed away in 2009. A product from Lucknow University, trained as a folklorist. Initially along with Prof. TKN Unnithan and Prof. Yogendra Singh established the department of Sociology in Rajasthan University, Jaipur in 1961 after a few years Prof. Deva moved to Jodhpur University as Head and later to Ravishankar University in 1969 and served till his retirement. He was elected as the President of the Indian Sociological Society in 1997. He authored and edited more than a dozen books besides numerous articles in national and international journals. Some of his works have been translated in foreign languages also. He was an embodiment of simplicity and honesty, a down to earth and straight forward man. He will be missed by his colleagues and students.

- Ravi Kapoor

2. Prof. S. Muthu Chidambaram, one of our senior life members passed away on 01.10.2009, shortly after her retirement as Professor of Sociology, Manonmaniam Sundaranar University, Tamil Nadu. Ms.S.Muthu Chidambaram majored in Sociology at Annamalai University. She received her doctorate degree from Madurai Kamaraj University. She began her career as a Lecturer in Sociology at Gandhigram University and later moved to Mother Teresa University. Then she became Reader at Manonmaniam Sundaranar University and retired as Professor on 30.06.2009. She also served as a visiting Professor for one year in the Department of South and South East Asian Studies, University of California, Berkeley. She had to her credit, several articles published in reputed journals. She brought out books which fetched her awards from the Government of Tamilnadu and as well from Professional Organizations.

- Ramakrishnan

3. Professor Brij Raj Chauhan, one of our senior life members, and former President of ISS passed away at the age of 83 years on November 3, 2009 in Udaipur. A Product of Lucknow University started teaching sociology in Rajasthan. He became the first director of Tribal Research Institute in 1964. Later he moved to the newly created department of Sociology at the Meerut University in the early 1970's and worked until his retirement in 1987. He was awarded the Prestigious National Fellowship for the year 1982 by UGC. He was associated with the Ethnographic and Folk Culture Society and contributed to its journal - The Eastern Anthropologist.

Professor Chauhan is perhaps the only one who had attended almost all the sessions of the All India Sociological Conferences, and of EFCS; and he also enlisted participation of his peers and students in them. He served for a term as the President of the Indian Sociological Society. At the time of the 2008 All India Sociological Conference, he was awarded Lifetime Achievement Plaque in Jaipur which he went personally to receive, despite his indifferent health. Alas! That was his last. At the time of Srinagar Conference, held in October 2009, he was bed-ridden with multiple problems and he bid adieu to the world soon after. Saintly and self-effacing, this Khadi-clad scholar remained fully devoted to the social sciences, disregarding the fruitless debate on the distinction between sociology and anthropology. A dedicated field worker, an erudite scholar, and remarkable teacher, Professor Chauhan's departure has created a void.

- Yogesh Atal

4. Prof. John V Ferreira, born on May 29, 1922, was one of the founder members of the Indian Sociological Society and was one of its two founding Secretaries, from its inception in 1951 to 1965. He graduated from St. Xavier's college, Bombay. He did his post graduation from the University of Bombay's Dept. of Sociology, Later, on Fr. Fuchs' advice, he got trained at the University of Vienna's Dept. of Ethnology that had been founded by Wilhelm Schmidt, the pioneer of the Diffusionist School. His PhD on Totemism in India - which went on to become a noteworthy publication, was under Prof. Wilhelm Koppers. On his return, he joined the Department of Sociology, University of Mumbai from where he retired as Professor of Cultural Anthropology and Head in 1982.

Ferreira's writings span the areas of anthropology theory and methodology and cover a wide range of topics. He was a popular teacher and carried an aura of fine oratory and theoretical comprehensiveness for several generations of students at Mumbai. He passed away after a brief illness on June 27, 2010.

- Kamala Ganesh

5. Prof. Anjan Ghosh, of Centre for Studies in Social Sciences, Kolkatta has passed away suddenly on June 5, 2010 due to blood cancer. The Indian Sociological Society has lost an active and energetic colleague who was also a member of the present editorial board of its journal, Sociological Bulletin.

- Tulsi Patel

6. Prof. S. Gokilavani, an active ISS member, born on June 2, 1957 had her early education at Madurai. She was a product of Madurai Kamaraj University. Ms. Gokilavani started her career as a lecturer in the Sociology Department, Madurai Kamaraj University, Madurai and later moved to Alagappa University, Karaikudi as Reader and became Professor and Head of the Women Studies Department. Her area of specialization was Sociology of Health and Women studies. She had published six books and 30 research papers in reputed journals. A noted teacher and sincere researcher worked for the benefit of the weaker sections of the community died on June 22, 2010 at Madurai due to massive cardiac failure.

- Dharmalingam

7. Prof. Dharendra Narain, born on 11 Feb 1931, a senior member of ISS passes away on July 8, 2010 peacefully in his sleep. He is a product of the University's Bombay School of Economics and Sociology as it was called then. His doctorate was under the supervision of Prof. Ghurye. He joined the Department in 1958. He went to the US as a Rockefeller Fellow from 1961 to 1963 and then spent a year teaching at Long Island University in New York. On his return 1964, he declined other offers and rejoined the University's Department of Sociology, from where he retired as Professor and Head in 1991.

Narain's areas of research and publication were culture and personality, national character and family studies. As a teacher, he focused on Sociology of Knowledge and Theoretical Sociology and impressed students with his deliberated and subtle style of setting up an exposition of ideas. He worked closely with Prof. K.M.Kapadia in the editing of the Sociological Bulletin. He was a dear colleague and friend to many in the University and was in touch with the Department with advice and help till the end. On July 8, 2010, he passed away peacefully in his sleep.

- Kamala Ganesh

8. Prof. Shambhu Lal Doshi one of our senior life member passed away in Banskara on July 27, 2010 at age of 82. He served to south Gujarat university Surat and Mohan Lal Sukhadia University Udaipur. He carried out a lot of anthropological studies on Tribes of Gujarat and Southern Rajasthan.

He was a prolific writer, published 28 books and lot of research articles in reputed journals, including Rajasthan Sociological bulletin. He was a well known personality in the Hindi world, where he contributed a lot to the spread of Sociology through his Hindi writings.

- Naresh Kumar Bhargava

ISS deeply mourn on the sad demise of these eminent sociologists and may their souls rest in peace.
