Shruti Tambe

Professor & Head, Dept. of Sociology
Director, Euroculture,
Erasmus Mundus funded Consortium
Co-Cordinator, Teaching and Learning Centre,
MHRD's PMMMNMTT.

Prof Shruti Tambe has been teaching Sociology for the last 26 years in Pune. Presently she is Professor and Head at the Department of Sociology (Centre for Advanced Studies), Savitribai Phule Pune University, Pune.

As someone who traverses the many worlds of Sociology-from the regional and the national to the international simultaneously, she can contribute to the collective decision making of the ISS in a meaningful way in the fast-changing globalised world. She has been actively involved in the Indian Sociological Society for almost two decades through RC1, RC 16 and RC 17(As Co-convenor since 2015-16). She was on the Editorial Board of the ISS Newsletter.

Since 2000 she is a member of International Sociological Association and an active member of RC47. At present, she is the Editor of the newsletter of RC 47 and a member of their Board. She has been attending all Sociological Congresses since 2002. In addition, she has been active in the Regional Academic circle and has served as a Member, Managing Committee of the Marathi Samajshastra Parishad in Maharashtra. She has served as Editor, Marathi Samajshastra Sanshodhan Patrika. From Regional Association to National Association to the International Sociological Association, she has consistently participated and contributed in the true spirit of a member of Indian Sociological Society.

Committed to contest academic dependency in the south she is writing and publishing both in English and Marathi. She has served as an editor of reputed journals like Samaj Prabodhan Patrika and Vichar Shalaka and editor of the Sociology section of the Samaj Vijnyan Kosha (Social Science Encyclopedia), she has a number of research-based articles published in journals like Current Sociology, Interventions-Journal of Post-Colonial Studies, Economic and Political Weekly, SEPHIS e-journal, Arthbodh and Sociological Bulletin. She has published three books and twenty research papers.

She has been a Visiting Professor at OISE, University of Toronto, Canada, and at Middlesex University, U.K. and has delivered invited lectures in various International Workshops and Conferences across the globe.

Her research interests include Urban Studies and Labour; Gender, Development and Citizenship; Social Movements, and Contemporary Theories.

From the above she can contribute to the ISS as it is a compelling task today to establish a meaningful dialogue between all these worlds of Sociology. She aims to do so by contributing specifically through academic writing and critical pedagogies workshops and young scholars training workshops.
