

PROFESSOR YOGENDRA SINGH ENDOWMENT FUND

Professor Yogendra Singh Endowment Fund was set up jointly by the Indian Sociological Society (ISS) in 2021. The fund has been created as a result of donation of Rs 8 lakh by Mrs. Neerja Singh. A Committee composed of the following manages the Fund: (i) the President of ISS, who is also be the Chairman of the Committee, (ii) Prof. K. L. Sharma, and (iii) Mrs. Neerja Singh or any senior sociologist nominated by her from time to time. When none of them is available, the Managing Committee of ISS will nominate a panel of three eminent sociologists or social anthropologists out of which the President of ISS will choose one to be a member of the Fund Committee in place of the any of the unavailable member.

The income from the Fund will be used to arrange for a distinguished sociologist to deliver the Prof. Yogendra Singh Memorial Lecture annually usually at the venue and time of All India Sociological conference.

SL NO.	LECTURER	THEME	VENUE AND DATE
01.	Prof. T.K Oommen		University of Mumbai, Mumbai, December 10, 2021
02.	Prof. Dipankar Gupta	“The New in the Old: Celebrating Fifty Years of Modernization of Indian Tradition”	USTM, Meghalaya, December 22, 2022
03.	Prof. N. Jayaram	“Between Tradition and Modernity: A Sociological Reading of Bimal Mitra’s Saheb Bibi Golam”	Vellore Institute of Technology, Vellore, December 30, 2022